

BACK LASER

LÁSER & MASAJE

THE BEST COMBINATION POSSIBLE: LASER & MASSAGE

The effectiveness of laser methodologies manifests itself in a tangible way in many areas and LuftHous® has been working for years and perfecting its range of tools related to this type of treatments through products for domestic use.

LuftHous® Back Laser is a sophisticated device that combines a pressing, kneading and vibration massager with laser light. We can say that this is a perfect instrument for your rest; say goodbye to tiredness and sit comfortably to enjoy this laser device.

HOW DOES THE LUFTHOUS® BACK LASER WORK?

It is vital to understand first of all how this technique works and thus establish a better basis on the product.

A type of amplified light that stimulates the propagation of energy is called a laser. Since its discovery, more than 50 years ago, many uses and applications have been found in various fields such as medicine, aesthetics and industry, among others.

How does the use of the laser affect your back?

The most recent research on the laser technique shows how when the laser beam of 650 nm. is made to impact vertically on the body, penetrates it, being finally remarkably beneficial to our body, which facilitates a better muscle condition and better ventilation.

THE MESSAGE DEVICE TAKES CARE OF YOUR BACK

The numerous applications of device make it a powerful reference in the field of personal care.

It is an instrument that helps alleviate back discomfort by improving the strength of the waist muscle to support the spine more firmly.

In addition, its use provides a truly positive effect on the lumbar zone (may even help improve recovery in this area).

In addition to the relief of discomfort, it is also necessary to highlight its application against swelling of the aseptic root or aid in reducing the sensation of agitation.

LuftHous® Back Laser is a very sophisticated and practical device, and apart from all the benefits cited so far, it is important to emphasize its help to support the spine, which translates as a better and prompt recovery in the case of back discomfort.

As a last point, it is important to emphasize its important contribution to the correction of incorrect postures in our back.

COMFORT, EASY TO USE AND GREAT PORTABILITY

LuftHous® Back Laser is an advanced technology instrument, which applies the pressure and vibration system intelligently. But in addition, its design is specially developed taking into account every detail.

Thanks to the wireless remote control, you can operate the device in the most convenient and practical way. Sit back, relax and enjoy the experience that LuftHous® Back Laser offers.
